

FACULTY TRAINING

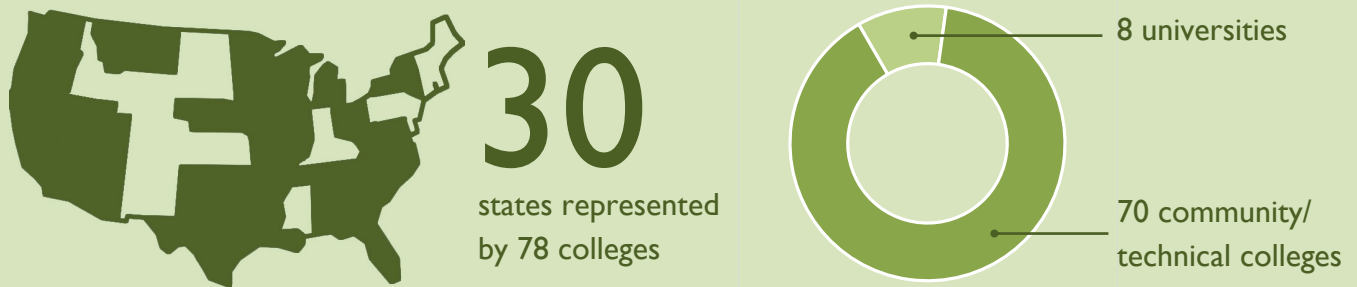

Working Connections offers free, in-depth professional development for current faculty to provide expertise needed to teach a specific, in-demand IT topic in a subsequent semester.

For further impact data covering Working Connections 2013-2019, visit: <http://bit.ly/WClong1319>

PROGRAM SUPPORT

The Convergence College Network (CCN) is a select community of practice that allows IT educators to regularly network, problem-solve, and share with one another to enhance and energize their programs.

To learn more about the CCN, watch our 4-minute video: <https://bit.ly/CCNvid2020>

BUSINESS ENGAGEMENT & CURRICULUM ALIGNMENT

The CTC's National Business and Industry Leadership Team (BILT) meets quarterly to provide essential co-leadership to make sure IT programs teach the skills students need to get hired.

To learn more about the CTC's successful BILT model, consider these resources:

"BILT Basics" (60-minute video) <http://bit.ly/BILTbasic>

"Your Annual Job Skills Validation Vote" (10-minute video) <http://bit.ly/jobskillsvote>

"Implementing the BILT Model of Business Engagement" (16-page PDF) <http://bit.ly/BILT-guide>